

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Czech Academy of Sciences, Institute of Philosophy, announces

LOGICA 2020

the 34th in the series of annual international symposia devoted to logic, to be held at Hejnice (in northern Bohemia, about 2.5 hours from Prague), on 15 – 19 June 2020.

Invited speakers are Katalin Bimbo, Rosalie Iemhoff, Alena Vencovská, and Diderik Batens.

The first session begins on the morning of Tuesday, June 16. The symposium closes at noon on Friday, June 19.

Contributions devoted to any of the wide range of logical problems are welcome except those focused on specialized technical applications. Particularly welcome are contributions that cover issues interesting both for ‘philosophically’ and for ‘mathematically’ oriented logicians.

If you are interested in presenting a paper at the symposium, please submit a two-page blinded abstract via EasyChair. The guidelines for submissions can be found at

<http://logika.flu.cas.cz/logica>

The deadline for submissions is 15 February 2020. Notifications will be sent out by the end of March.

The fee for the symposium is 450 EUR for participants and 320 EUR for accompanying persons. The fee covers full board and lodging at Hejnice Monastery during the symposium, the conference coach from Prague to Hejnice and back, and (for participants) a copy of the post-proceedings volume containing contributions to the symposium.

Contributions to Logica symposia are published in The Logica Yearbook series (College Publications). Previous volumes include papers from Nuel Belnap, Johan van Benthem, Kosta Došen, Melvin Fitting, Bob Hale, Wilfrid Hodges, Jaakko Hintikka, David Lewis, Jeff Paris, Barbara Partee, Stephen Read, Greg Restall, Gabriel Sandu, Howard Sobel, Stewart Shapiro and many others.

Scholars from countries with underfunded academic institutions are invited to apply for a reduction of the conference fee. Those who wish to apply for the reduction should explicitly state so when submitting their abstract, which should be extended to four pages.

All correspondence concerning the symposium should be directed to
