

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Czech Academy of Sciences, Institute of Philosophy, announces

LOGICA 2018

the 32nd in the series of annual international symposia devoted to logic, to be held at Hejnice (in northern Bohemia, about 2.5 hours from Prague), on 18 – 22 June 2018.

Invited speakers are Samson Abramsky, Francesco Berto, Danielle Macbeth, and Jaroslav Peregrin.

A tutorial will be given by Carles Noguera i Clofent.

The first session begins on the morning of Tuesday June 19. The symposium closes at noon Friday June 22.

Contributions devoted to any of the wide range of logical problems are welcome except those focused on specialized technical applications. Particularly welcome are contributions that cover issues interesting both for ‘philosophically’ and for ‘mathematically’ oriented logicians.

If you are interested in presenting a paper at the symposium, please submit a two-page blind abstract via EasyChair. The guidelines for submissions can be found at

<http://logika.flu.cas.cz/logica>

The deadline is 15 February 2018. Notifications of acceptance will be sent out by the end of March.

The fee for the symposium is 430 EUR for participants and 300 EUR for accompanying persons. The fee covers full board and lodging at Hejnice Monastery during the symposium, the conference coach from Prague to Hejnice and back, and (for participants) a copy of the volume containing contributions to the symposium.
